

Fusion LifeSpa

If you seek a fusion of East and West, Fusion Lifespa is ready for you. This cutting-edge center offers the best of two worlds, a place where two time-honored healing traditions and life philosophies join in a new concept wellness. Donna and Tim Duffy have fused their own talents, she's an aesthetician and he's a designer, into one inspired undertaking. A holistic approach to beauty and health are offered in an Asian-inspired, ecologically sensitive environment by highly trained therapists who combine methods from across the globe, including Thailand, Bali, Japan and France. You can enjoy the Japanese soaking tub or other water therapies before indulging in one of the many other body treatments Fusion Lifespa offers. Everything here is 100-percent organic. Even the nail products contain no toxic chemicals, making Fusion a completely healthful environment for both its clients and staff. There is a Traditional Chinese Medicine Clinic onsite that offers acupuncture and herbal medicine, as well as a Feng Shui practitioner, a natural health clinic, a whole foods nutritionist, and an R.N. who is board certified in internal anti-aging medicine. They also offer a comprehensive selection of organic and natural products for your skin, body, home and life. In Fusion's relaxed and beautiful environment, you will find a unique and truly meaningful health and relaxation experience. Let Fusion Lifespa create a new world of health and beauty for your body and your life.
